Dear Parents, Teachers and Students
Stretch your imagination and reach out!

Dream Queen Size!

Reach for the Stars!

My firm belief is 'learn to rise and walk to cherish life against the exhaustion of guilt or failure, to hold on until the light come on again. All this is very much possible with the endeavours and painstaking by parents, teachers, students and supporting Management. Our efforts to enrich each child and enable him/her to realise his/her skills and activities. There is a deep commitment to the values of education and independence both from the staff and the students.

It is gratifying to see the end of another successful and happy academic session in which we all have worked together to bring the best out of each other.

My hearty wishing you all the best in all your venture.

In the publication of "Glimpses"
