Principal's Message

Dear parents, children and teachers

"Those who aim at great deeds must also suffer greatly." Plutarch (46-120AD)

This world is full of challenges. My submission to all of you is to accept the hardest challenge so that you may achieve the top most position and that you all have to walk through the path which is full of hurdles. Cross each and every intruption with great enthusiasm. In the last I must say always to keep in mind the words of Thomas Uarton while accepting any challenge.

"Hope for the best and Prepare for the worst."

– Thomas Uarton (1532-84)

Editorial

We reached the midway stage of the session on 30 Sep., 2008. It was memorable in many ways. The school showed excellent results in all streams. The founder's day was celebrated on 15 November with Yajna. The sports day was celebrated with much fanfare. The school remained busy with academic work to inspire the students to do better in examinations and in other fields. The beginning of the session 2009 will reflect the performance of the students & culmination of our efforts in academic field.
