Parveen Kumar Patpatia

Dear Staff, Parents & Students

'Change' has been the buzzword recently at the National and International arena. Coincidentally, our education system has also experienced a lot of changes. We all will welcome, what ever the new policies and systems, in such a manner that it is for better growth.

The vidyalaya, in its pursuit of excellence is going at full throttle. The third volume of School's Newsletter which is awaited eagerly by all of us serves as a vehicle to share what this spread out but significant fraternity in doing at various fronts.

I believe that there is no end to this journey.....

Editorial

Dear parents and children

The sole motto of ours is to make every student a shining pole star among the stars of the universe to which everybody on the earth may say, "See that star shining brightly is none but the part of our little galaxy – TDBSSMS on which every parents may feel proud and every teacher may feel a glint at his heart". So, I would like to assure everyone that all the members of our teaching community are leaving no stone unturned to make your ward a shining star. Academically, we stand no where less than the others. To keep our words and promises true, we have made remarkable all round progress during the preceding months.
