Dear Parents,

Volume-VIII of News letter covers highlights of our important activities. We tried our best to inculcate the values and to transfer the school's philosophy "विद्या ददाति विनयं" amongst the students. We not only believe but also assure that we can build your youth for future rather than future of your youth.

Once again thanks for your un-ending support so far and lets join hand to face challenges for the coming session.

Jai Hind.

Editorial

Dear Parents,

Since the crack of its dawn, the dynamic progress made by TDBSSMS has enabled it to create a niche for itself among the other reputed schools of Hisar. To keep pace with the changing role of education TDBSSMS strives unabatedly to review and revamp its system of pedagogy and curriculum. This institution thrives on its characteristic ability to integrate text with experiential approach to teaching-learning process to promote critical thinking, foster team spirit, creativity, self-motivation and leadership in students.
