General Secretary's Note

The School wishes you to be responsible volunteers towards progress of the country where you would happily give your time, effort, support, empathy and smile to the society. Face the challenges and strengthen yourselves to be victorious.

Jagdeep Bhargava

Principal's Desk

As you know that co-curricular activities that play a vital role in the development of a child, we acknowledge here some of the activities during April 2013 to September 2013 in our Vol. XI of our bi-annual newsletter which is the out come of continuous and comprehensive efforts done by our staff.

Dear readers, we are committed to transfer basic values among the children through these types of activities.

Thanks for your continuous support. Jai Hind!

P. K. Patpatia

Editorial

It's my delight to collect the dew drops of priceless memories of our school and to avail the fullest opportunity to taste the nectar of childhood which our students spread with fullest zeal in our school premises.

Highs and lows are interwoven and form an integral part of the mosaic of life, but our consistent, persistent efforts prove that failure is a word unknown to us. Our students the responsible citizens of future, the pillars of society and the beacon lights of a brighter tomorrow, always strive to reach the highest of the skies.

Wish you a happy reading!
