GENERAL SECRETARY'S MESSAGE

There are two ways to bring light. Be the candle that burns steadily or the mirror that reflects the flame. The school endeavours to brighten the light by all means.

JAGDEEP BHARGAVA

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Dear Parents

It is a matter of pride and congratulation that your ward has captured some of the portion of this esteemed document.

It is not merely a bundle of few coloured papers but, dear readers, it is a document that makes history of this Institution.

Thanks from core of my heart to the history makers and, I request the readers to move a little extra, from routine learning, and become a part of the next issue of News letter. It will be a great achievement for you. I assure you that your acknowledgment in the coming News Letter will really bring a change.

It is true, my dear students that

"IF YOU WALK A STEP, CHANGE IS DEFINITE"

Jai Hind!

iNVESTiTURE CEREMONY

'Uneasy is the head that wears the crown'. With power comes great responsibility. With fare and square fab policies the office bearer of the school were selected & on the special morning assembly of 9th April, 2014. The student council was bestowed with the responsibility of leading the school.

The school Head Girl & Head Boy carried the school flag, captains & vice captains with their house-flags came to the stage. They took the oath of leading the school from the front with commitment, confidence & competence. There after Principal Sir & House incharges pinned up the sashes & offered badges to the council members. They pledged to adhere to the principles upheld by school. Apart form this, these representatives also pledged their service to the nation. The school Head Boy gave an acceptance speech on behalf of the office bearers. He promised to discharge the duties to the best of his ability which was followed by a cultural programme performed by the students of each house. The entire programme was competently compered by Pooja (Class-VIII) & Onkar (Class-VIII).

MOKSH VRIDH AASHRAM

A group of 8 students with their 2 teachers delegates went to perform for the Annual function of Moksh Vridha Aashram. They got standing ovation with their heart touching performances. Mrs Pankaj Sandhir was very happy with the performances. She provided gifts & appreciation certificates to all the students.

HYGIENE CONSCIOUSNESS

The level of health care has excelled tremendously. Class VI onwards, girls of school were pleased to have a convention on good grooming & Hygiene. Sponsored by Hindustan Levers, this workshop was held on 17th April, 2014 in school computer lab. A PPT (Power Point Presentation) was shown to emphasize the importance of implementing good personal Hygiene practices. The interaction familiarized them with grooming & etiquettes to improve their personality. It made them ponder on aesthetic sense, health & hygiene.

EARTH DAY CELEBRATION

In honour of Earth Day, the school hosted a seminar on Monday, 22nd April, 2014 in school computer lab which began at noon & lasted for two hours. Dr. Sushil Sharma (Environmentalist, HAU) interacted with students with a power point presentation to elaborate how climate change is affecting their lives. Mrs Rita Chopra (Geography lecturer) also interacted with students to tell them what the world is going to face due to this problem. She inspired the students to continue being part of the solution & explore ways to make everyday the Earth Day.

EARTH OLYMPIAD

12 students of the school matched their wits at GJU, Hisar in city level Earth Olympiad. Students were accompanied by their mentor Mrs. Rita Chopra (PGT Geography) on 19th April, 2014.

ANGER-MANAGEMENT

A workshop on Anger-management was hosted by our 3 teachers delegates (Mrs. Rashmi Rajan, Mrs. Anita Lamba, Mrs. Anita Rawat) for class IX & X on 5th May, 2014. Discussion took place on various topics related to anger and what are the factors that trigger anger more frequently in teens than in any person. Students participated enthusiastically through listing, contemplating & reflecting deeply upon several issues. The show was a time of true reflection for many teens who admitted that sometimes they too went over board when it came to fight an irritation over trivial matters.

Dr. D. D Sharma, the guest of honor of the day, explained the reasons behind violent mood swing & super fast quick development processes taking place in teens' brain which constantly create new neurons & neuron links while pruning the old ones. He also discussed the steps to manage anger & few exercises for staying cool during provocative situations. This made the whole concept of this event more illustrative & explanatory.

MOTHER'S DAY

"You are the embodiment of love
You are like a boon from above
Like you there's no other
You are the only one, you are my mother"

Our tiny toddlers made their moms feel special by their Mother's Day celebration on 10th of May, 2014. Children welcomed their moms with the song "TU KITNI ACCHI HAI PYARI PYARI HAI....". Music was made to match the melody of the little voice & the melody was melting. Students also performed on many toe tapping numbers enthusiastically. The mothers were asked to share their thoughts as they finished their tea. Several moms spoke and seemed very touched by this special occasion of bonding. The smiles only stretched as the sentiments surfaced.

SAVE BIRD CAMPAIGN

"Waking up to the chirping of sparrows is a part of everyone's childhood memory. However it has become increasingly difficult to spot sparrows these day" said Principal in his address when a rep session was organised to sensitise the students to save the birds from getting wiped out.

With the rising temperature, when we were stepping into the summer shoes during the month of April, a group of students geared up to help the depleting birds. They kept the earthen bowls filled with water & millet for birds. It was their regular exercise to clean out old seeds from feeders & put fresh water frequently in the birds' bath.

WORKSHOP

With the dream to live in a pollution free environment & to protect the environment from further deterioration, a workshop was conducted by HANDS (Hands for Animals & Nature Defence Services Trust) on 17th May, 2014. Mr Nihal Singh Saini (A social worker) was the guest of honor on the occasion. He inspired the students to take initiative to save our environment & extincting animals.

A ten day workshop organised for teachers from 23rd May to 1st June, 2014 to improve their teaching skills.

VISIT TO AKSHARDHAM

On 22nd May, 2014 four teachers delegates along with 56 students got privilege of witnessing Swaminarayan Akshardham Temple Delhi. Carved by 7000 sculptors out of pink sandstones & white marbles, it displays centuries of traditional Indian & Hindu culture.

The paintings, sculptures and relics give a very vivid glimpse into ancient Indian culture, tradition, spirituality & architecture. The students gained insight into ancient Vedic mode of business, their village & market, medicines & inventions. Along the bank of river Yamuna, students enjoyed verdant gardens, water fountains mandirs, carved pavilions & immaculate architecture. It was really an educative & memorable experience.

The excursion was followed up by interesting class activities to check the understanding of the students.

SUMMER CAMP ROCKS

The most pleasurable time of the year, which scattered happiness & love in profusion is our summer camp w.e.f. 23rd May to 1st June, 2014. It is specially designed for children, who are enthusiastic learners, to experience beyond what they typically receive during the school year. We brighten our days by all the smiles & laughs to nourish the tender relationship with students.

They got a chance to build up their confidence & oral communication in spoken English classes by Mrs. Neha Chaudhary & Mrs Seema Kakkar. They discovered the novelty & originality in music & dance classes by Mr Amit Kumar & Mrs. Komal Sareen. The guest of creativity was satisfied with Mrs. Anubha Suthar & Miss Bharti. They learned yoga moves under the watchful eyes of Mrs. Sharda Devi. With Mrs. Lata Sharma & Mrs. Rekha Malik, they got a chance to explore, create, to have fun & grow.

For a couple of days, special personality classes were organised in which Mr. Rajesh (Ex. Indian Air Force, Ex-Asst. Commandant BSF) & Mrs. Hitika Virmani (Whella, Delhi) were the special guest of honor.

BRAVO! A BIG WELL DONE

NO TOBACCO DAY

Every year on May 31st, the world observes 'No Tobacco Day' (WNTD) promoted by WHO (World Health Organisation). To express the support & to reduce the tobacco consumption a rally was organized by NCC cadets. Mr. Rajesh Sharma (CEO, Wing Commander), Mr. Subhash Chander (III Officer, NSS), Mrs. Sumanlata Sharma (III Officer, NSS) were present on the occasion. The rally was flagged off by Principal P.K. Patpatia.

Primarily they focused on encouraging users to refrain from tobacco consumption and its related products. By this mass meeting, we wanted to draw public & government attention to prevent tobacco consumption. The day was observed with fervour & the city saw a host of activities to create awareness.

SIT & DRAW COMPETITION

A city level open drawing competition was successfully hosted by the school on 7th June, 2014, which was organized by Cultural Forum of the school in collaboration with eminent artist Mr. Bijender Singh. Students from many schools participated with heave & sway. The contest was themed on nature. Eye catching drawings showed a strong sense of colour layering. The artworks were judged on artistic merits, creativity & theme communication. Paratibha in category I (5-8), Nitin in category II (9-14 years) & Pinki in category III (above 14 years) earned trophies respectively.

NATIONAL INTEGRATION CAMP

Six NCC students attended the National Integration Camp at Raiwala, Uttarakhand from 7th - 18th June, 2014.

This 12 day event held once in a year and is always seen as a matter of prestige by the participants. More than 500 cadets from different states experienced the different culture from East to West and North to South. It was a great experience. They relished the tasty food & enjoyed indoor & outdoor activities. The programme comprised a dazzling cultural show as well.

WAIVE DRUGS
